Defendant, Alvin Hankins, takes witness stand on his own behalf. He states that the turn in which impact occurred is blind. That he was not expecting traffic at time of day he was travelling the road; that when he first sighted Plaintiff's vehicle, it, and also his vehicle, were travelling in the "beaten path", or the main tracks made by other vehicles. He states ~~defendant~~ Plaintiff pulled sharply over and was within less than two feet of his (Plaintiff's) own side of road; that he (Defendant) also pulled over, but that cars collided, the left front fenders of cars hitting, and the two vehicles overlapping by 2 1/2 feet.

All the evidence being submitted, it appears to the Court that defendant is at fault.

Wherefore judgment is rendered for
